

Worksheet 0: Functions

1. Individually write down your best definition for a function. Give an example that illustrates your definition.
2. Compare notes with your group and agree on a common definition for your group.
3. What are the differences between the domain, codomain and range of a function.
  - (a) What do they mean intuitively?
  - (b) What does a careful definition look like for each?